

Speech-Language Pathologist Role Little Language

Are you a phenomenal speech-language pathologist with a passion for developing children's communication skills and delivering exceptional client care and outcomes?

If so, you may be the perfect fit for our growing team at Little Language!

Little Language is a well-regarded, family-centred paediatric clinic established in 2015. We offer exceptional speech-language pathology to neurodivergent and neurotypical children aged 18 months to 18 years in a range of clinical settings.

We are passionate about speech pathology and the positive impact it can have. Our goal at Little Language is to enable children of all ages with speech, language and literacy challenges find their roar.

Due to our organic growth and an increased demand for our services, we're seeking an exceptional speech-language pathologist to expand our team.

About You

- You have energy and passion for working with children and for upholding the integrity of our speech pathology industry
- You are committed to growth, to finding solutions, and hold yourself to a high standard
- You are organised and take initiative
- You are approachable and thrive working both collaboratively and independently

This is an opportunity for a new grad, early career or established speechie to work with the practice owners and be part of a passionate, healthy and vibrant team with amazing growth prospects and long-term career growth.

What We Do

As part of our team, you will contribute to our key goal of providing excellent speech pathology care to our general caseload, from assessment through to discharge, and enable children of all ages with communication challenges find their roar!

Our commitment to excellence is reflected in our strong community ties and referral network, and in the thousands of Gold Coast families we have supported since 2015.

The Team

We are small but mighty and genuinely like each other! We have a culture of building each other up and love to have fun together.

Little Language Speechie Chloe Campbell says, "I love working at Little Language because I am presented with new opportunities every day to make a meaningful difference in my client's lives through developing their communication skills. Danielle and Yvonne foster a supportive and collaborative environment that provides opportunities for professional growth and where I feel supported and valued as a member of the team and as a clinician."

Little Language AHA Isabelle Schmidt says, "Working at Little Language allows me to grow as a Masters of Speech Pathology student. I'm surrounded by experience and passion, which is a great environment to work in. Our clients are beautiful, and being able to support them in reaching their goals is a privilege."
