

SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST TEAM MEMBER 2025

About the role

Little Language Speech Pathology is seeking a passionate and dedicated Speech Language Pathologist to join our growing team in Ashmore, Queensland.

This is an opportunity for a new graduate or experienced speech pathologist to work closely with the practice SLP owners and be part of a healthy and vibrant team with genuine support, flexibility, a manageable caseload, a focus on personal wellbeing and professional development, and long-term career growth.

What you'll be doing

- Assessing, diagnosing and treating a diverse range of communication disorders in children aged 18 months to 18 years, supporting a range of differences in speech, language and literacy, in clinic and education settings
- Developing and implementing individualised treatment plans to help clients achieve their speech and language goals
- Collaborating with other healthcare professionals, families and caregivers to provide holistic, patient-centred care
- Maintaining accurate and detailed clinical documentation
- Participating in professional development activities to stay up-to-date with the latest research and best practices in speech pathology

What we're looking for

- Energy and passion for working with neurodivergent and neurotypical children
- Strong clinical skills and reasoning in assessment, diagnosis, and evidence-based intervention
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills to build genuine relationships and effectively engage with clients and their families, and multidisciplinary health partners
- Adaptability and the ability to work both independently and collaboratively
- Commitment to ongoing professional development and evidence-based practice, and for upholding the integrity of our speech pathology industry
- Strong organisational skills and initiative to reflect and adapt your own and client goals and obtain results

What we offer

At Little Language Speech Pathology, we are committed to supporting our team's professional growth and personal well-being. We offer:

- Regular informal and formal in-person support
- Regular formal supervision for session debriefing, reflective practice, client discussion, and clinical analysis support
- A focus on team mental and physical health and wellbeing – we value daily check-ins, fun or meaningful team events, celebrations, meetings with a 'walk and talk' or guided meditation twist, charity events, sweepstakes, coffees, cocktails, and a stocked snack drawer, to name a few!
- Negotiable salary, regular bonuses plus $3000 professional development of your choosing
- Flexible working arrangements and a manageable caseload
- Thorough onboarding and training program
- A dedicated and comprehensive New Graduate Program
- Clinical educator opportunities through our partnership with multiple universities
- Our two female SLP owners are genuinely available to you to guide, support, nurture, listen, laugh, and chat
- Your birthday off to celebrate your way!
